Editor: Di Horncastle 01964-65049 email: dihorn@hotmail.co.uk Issue No. 51. SEPT/OCT/NOV 2017

EDITOR'S NOTES

I have been asked by a few people lately if there is a local Handyman in our area—does anyone know of someone? If so please let me know so I can let everyone know.

Once again our wonderful Joan is putting on a Harvest Auction in the White Horse, and Coffee Morning in aid of our Churches (dates below), Joan is a tremendous fundraiser, and deserves a special mention for all the hard work she does for our Community and other charities, recently having raised £300.00 with a Concert in the Church for Combat in Care. Well done and Thank you Joan.

SKEALS

Our thanks to all of you who came along to our display of Skeals publications in the Church over the summer months. We hope you enjoyed it. It was well attended by Visitors as well as the local community. Special thanks to Mike Welton for his sterling work and those who supported by helping to prepare, put up and dismantle the display and those who baked and manned the refreshments on Sunday afternoons, we are very grateful for all your efforts. Thank you.

CHURCH NEWS

The preliminary consultation meeting for the closure of Skeffling Church has taken place. The matter now goes forward, with some input from the diocese.

On 1st October Rev Lansford Pentimity, from the Methodist Church, will take a breakfast service in the chancel. He is quite a character and most people feel really uplifted following his services. So do come along and join in. This will be a harvest celebration and any dried goods, tins, etc., will be welcomed. These will later be taken to a hostel for the homeless.

On 7th October the harvest auction will take place in The White Horse. Alan Douglas will be the visiting auctioneer. Proceeds will be for All Saints Easington and St Helens Skeffling.

There will be no cafe service on 15th October. However on the evening of Sunday 15th there is the confirmation service at Hedon Church. Hopefully we will have some adult candidates for confirmation at this service - we are gradually building up the membership at All Saints trying to ensure that the Church survives into the future. Lois

HOLMPTON NEWS

A Craft Fair will be held at The Crossroads Nursery Hollym on Saturday 21st October 10am - 3pm in aid of St Nicholas Church's Holmpton and Hollym. Over 20 craft stalls, Tombola, Raffle and Refreshments.

Our Annual Victorian Christmas Market will be held on Sunday 19th November 10am - 2pm with various stalls, Tombola, Raffle and Refreshments in aid Of Holmpton Village Hall funds. A Carol Service will be held at St. Nicholas Church Holmpton 7pm with refreshments. All welcome Pat Leckonby

EASINGTON YOUTH CLUB

The Summer Fayre and Fun Run was a great success and raised £1,418.62 on the day. The Marquis of Granby held a quiz which raised £117.00, and we also had a stand at the Holmpton RAF event which raised £82.00. Thank you to everyone involved in all of the above events which helps us keep the Youth Club running and raising funds to replace equipment and renew the play park.

We also recently came 3rd place in the Stoves UK competition and will be receiving £2,000 of replacement kitchen equipment - thank you for all your votes.

Future events - The Duke of Edinburgh are having a presentation evening on 25/9/2017 at 19:00, all are welcome, Christmas Fayre on 29/11/2017, raffle tickets will be on sale shortly.

The Youth Club are also holding a Halloween Night with Refreshments and a Disco starting at 18:30 on 31/10/1017.

For those who go shopping in Tesco, please can you vote in the Tesco Bags of Help competition we are hoping to replace more equipment in the Youth Club.

Finally, a reminder to those who have dogs that the Youth Club field is a prohibited area for dog walking. Please do not walk your dogs on the field. Thank you for your cooperation. Kim Dalton, Secretary
